

Value of the Month-Respect

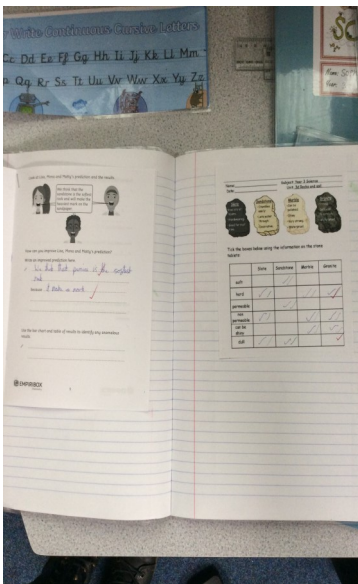

- A feeling of deep admiration for someone or something elicited by their abilities, qualities, or achievements
- Due regard for the feelings, wishes, or rights of others.

As part of their science learning Year 3 showed respect for each other, taking turns and using the resources carefully.

They investigated the properties of different rocks and made predictions based on their knowledge.

Whole School

We are trying really hard to remember our manners and show respect for others by saying please and thank you. We are also remembering to hold the door open for other people, and greeting each other with 'Good Morning'.

*Respect people's feelings. Even if it does not mean anything to you,
it could mean everything to them.*

In Nursery we showed each other respect during show and tell. We listened to each other and waited our turn before speaking. We also listened when Alistair kindly brought in his wheelchair and explained why he needed to use it. Well done Dolphin class!

A story about respect

A Man with a Lamp

Once upon a time, there was a small town. There lived a man by himself who couldn't see. He was blind. Yet, he carried a lighted lamp with him whenever he went out at night.

One night as he was coming home after having a dinner outside, he came across a group of young travellers. They saw that he was blind, yet carrying a lighted lamp. They started passing comments on him and made a fun of him. One of them asked him, "Hey Man! You are blind and can't see anything! Why do you carry the lamp then?!"

The blind man replied, "Yes, unfortunately, I am blind and I can't see anything but a lighted lamp which I am carrying is for the people like you who can see. You may not see the blind man coming and end up pushing me. That is why I carry a lighted lamp".

The group of travellers felt ashamed and apologized for their behaviour.

Moral: We should think before judging others. Always be polite and learn to see things from others point of view.
