

Eastlands Primary School

School Improvement - Protective Behaviours Programme

Part of our school PSHE curriculum we teach the Protective Behaviours Programme. Here are the core principles of the programme. These link closely to the new behaviour policy, equality standards and child safeguarding indicators.

RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

All children have the rights that follow, no matter what colour, what class, what sex or what religion they are:

Safeguarding is Everybody's Responsibility

School Improvement - Here are ideas from our children.

2022 Year 6 – 'wider menu options – perhaps children having a say.' LD

School Council Task
Will arrange a meeting with Educaterers to discuss this possibility.

School Councillors to ask for ideas from class mates

2022 - Year 6 'Consider having a MUGA'

School Council Task
Speak to Mr Northedge and Mr Batchelor.

School Councillors Oliver & Grace to speak to Mr N & Mr B

2022 Year 3 – 'More free choice from pupils to choose what lessons they do.'

School council to talk to teachers – Invite Mrs Warrington to a meeting

School Councillors to share ideas with teachers

2022 Year 1 – 'Have more trips and visitors'

There is a new programme of trips for the next year linking RE and other subjects.

Good progress!

2022 Year 2 & 3 – 'More opportunities to work with younger children and siblings.'

We can do this when COVID is not an issue e.g. walk down to the church at Christmas or for the Pantomime, House playtimes.

Good progress!

2022- Year EYFS 'Have more equipment.'

The school has a plan to buy a new History timeline with key facts to deepen learning.

Good progress!

2022 - Year 1 'Have parents come in.'

This is happening for sport events, Rocksteady concerts and assemblies. At the end of term parents will get to come in to see your books.

Good progress!

2022 Year 2 – 'Plant more flowers around school'

There is a Celebration Garden and Year group flower beds and the allotment for growing vegetables.

Good progress!

We all have the right to feel safe all the time.
